- A. The evaluation system is based on the principle that an employee should be kept informed of progress in meeting the standards of the position. An initial probationary period of one year is required for all newly hired Police Sergeants and six months is required for all other newly hired employees before permanent status is attained. Reports must be prepared near the end of each one-third portion of this period. Additional reports may be prepared at any time during the probationary period. Once an employee has completed the initial probationary period, performance reports are conducted every two years or during conditional (probationary) periods immediately following a promotion or lateral transfer.
- B. The purpose of the performance evaluation is to reflect the unit member's proficiency in the job; promote self-improvement; develop leadership; assist employees to meet full potential; identify the areas in which the individual is performing satisfactorily, as well as areas where improvement is desired; establish goals and objectives of department for ensuing year, determine how well the pre-established goals and objectives were met; and meet legal requirements.
- C. The qualifications of each employee, as demonstrated by their work performance, are rated on the factors listed. Any important qualified factors not listed in items I through VI are described by the evaluator and rated under item VII. To indicate the rating on any factor, a (x) mark is placed in the appropriate rating column.
- D. Any ratings below "Satisfactory" or above "Very Good" must be supported by examples of why the rater believes the performance to be substandard or excellent. Comments will also include suggestions as to how performance can be improved, suggestions regarding desirable training, or recommendations for meeting individual and/or department goals, when applicable.
- E. During the probationary period when the necessary skills or knowledge to become competent have to be acquired on the job, a rating of "Needs Improvement" on the first and second report does not definitely indicate progress is not satisfactory, unless a statement as to unsatisfactory progress is made in the "Comments" section. On the final report any rating of "Needs Improvement" indicates progress has not been satisfactory. Any rating of "Unacceptable" or an over-all rating of "Needs Improvement" on any report of performance indicates progress has been unacceptable.
- F. The primary evaluator will discuss the report with the reviewing office before presenting it to the employee. If the primary evaluator and reviewing officer do not reach agreement on the report, it will be referred to the college president or appropriate assistant chancellor. Any changes made to this report after it has been signed by the employee will not be valid unless such changes are reported to the employee and recorded on their copy.
- G. In signing this report, the employee merely acknowledges that they have seen it. Their signature does not indicate agreement. Any employee who wishes to attach a written statement concerning any part of the report may do so by following the steps outlined below under "Employee Response."
- H. When a probationary employee or permanent employee has failed to demonstrate fitness for a position, the Administrative Officer/designee will recommend further action. The Human Resources Manager will review the case, and based on the Administrative Officer/designee's recommendation, determine appropriate action.

DEFINITIONS OF RATING

Excellent	A check in this column indicates that the employee's work consistently and significantly exceeds the standard for this position.
Very Good	A check in this column indicates that the employee's work is definitely and consistently satisfactory.
Satisfactory	A check in this column indicates that the employee's work meets the standard for this position.
Needs Improvement	A check in this column reflects that performance on the job is somewhat inadequate to reach the standard required of a competent permanent employee by the end of the probationary period or that performance has deteriorated for a permanent employee; greater effort or training is needed. (Any overall rating of "needs improvement" must be substantiated by the evaluator's written statement of specific reasons for such rating as well as suggestions for improvement.)
Unacceptable	A check in this column reflects that performance on the job is very inadequate, special training, reassignment, or separation may be advisable. (Any factor or overall rating of unacceptable must be substantiated by the evaluator's statement of specific reasons for each such rating as well as suggestions for improvement.)

THESE DEFINITIONS MUST BE USED IN MARKING THE PERFORMANCE FACTORS AND ARRIVING AT THE OVERALL RATING. PLEASE REFER TO THE LRSA CONTRACT FOR ASSISTANCE.

Other Definitions: Administrative Officer refers to the appropriate Vice President of Administration or District Manager. Reviewing Officer refers to the rater's immediate supervisor.

If the employee believes the rating is improper, they should discuss it with the primary evaluator. If still not satisfied, the employee may appeal the evaluation in writing to the VPA/Site Administrator within 15 days of the date of the review. Such response will be attached to the evaluation in the employee's personnel file. In preparing a written response, the employee should adhere to the following guidelines.

1. Identify the report by stating the date of the report, the name of the primary evaluator, and the date the report was received.
2. Specify the ratings or comments which they believe are incorrect.
3. State ratings or comments which they believe should be made on the report.
4. Give facts substantiating each change requested or extenuating circumstances.
5. Keep a copy of their written request and send the original to Human Resources.
